Rhythm of the Muse Exhibit Rules & Information

1. Eligibility: Entry is open to artists aged 19 and up. Every artist creates with a soundtrack - sometimes consciously, sometimes quietly in the background. For Rhythm of the Muse, artists are invited to create a piece inspired by a meaningful song or album. The chosen track(s) will form a curated playlist played throughout the exhibition, inviting viewers to listen, look, and experience the work through both sound and sight.

Copies of other people's artwork/photographs are not acceptable. If an entry is deemed to be a copy of another person's work, the entry will be removed. All painting and drawing media, hand-pulled prints, collages, sculpture, mixed media, pottery, ceramics, glass, jewelry, metalwork, fiber art, wood work, and photography are eligible for entry. Artwork that has previously been entered in a Wassenberg art show within the last 365 day are not eligible. This is a juried and judged show, entry does not guarantee work will be displayed.

2-D Works: Must be framed and wired suitable for the weight and size of the piece. Works on canvas must be framed or canvas edges painted and stapled on back, not sides (gallery wrap). Works on paper in any medium, including photography, must be matted and framed under glass or plexiglass. No saw-tooth hangers, clip-frames, glass sandwich frames or acetate coverings. Frames must be wood or metal and enclosed on all four sides. Size of 2-D work not to exceed 75" in any direction including frame.
